

Corporate Symposia Topics of Interest

Taking Medication

- Navigating the use of incretin mimetics and enhancers
- Preserving pancreatic function in diabetes
- Advances in combination therapy using oral agents
- Oral medications: past, present, and future
- Insulin as the initial treatment for Type 2 diabetes
- New advances in insulin therapy
- Aggressive control strategies in managing diabetes
- Insulin management in the peri-operative patient with diabetes

Monitoring

- Special health considerations and the use of insulin pumps
- Continuous Glucose Monitoring (CGM): a tool for changing patient behavior
- Understanding and interpreting blood glucose trends with the use of CGM
- Understanding Blood Glucose Data for Effective Pattern Management
- It's more than measuring blood sugar: blood pressure, weight, exercise goals

Reducing Risks

- Lipids, cardiovascular disease, and medication: finding the link
- Treating the spectrum of cardiovascular disease in patients with diabetes
- Getting to the bottom of cholesterol: it's more than just diet
- Lowering the risk of cardiovascular disease with improved glucose control
- Early detection of chronic kidney disease
- Anemia, kidney failure, and diabetes
- Obesity: Medication, Surgery and other Options
- Recognizing and treating neuropathies
- What is erectile dysfunction and how to treat it

Healthy Coping

- Changing patient behaviors – strategies that work

Healthy Eating

- Helping patients navigate the maze of healthy eating for diabetes
- Weight loss programs that work